

Here to listen Not to tell

We provide a confidential service for everyone including young people under the age of 16. This means you can tell others about your visit but we won't

BUT! If we think you or someone else might be in serious danger of harm we would have to tell someone but we would try to let you know first

If you have any worries about confidentiality please ask a member of staff